

MODERN SLAVERY STATEMENT 2020

Introduction from the Board

Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights. It takes various forms, such as slavery, servitude, forced and compulsory labour and human trafficking, all of which have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty by another in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain.

Michelmersh is committed to ensuring best practices to combat slavery and human trafficking.

This statement is made in accordance with section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes Michelmersh's slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending December 2020.

Organisational structure

The Michelmersh Group represents seven of the most recognised premium brands across the UK and Europe, producing over 125 million handmade and machine-made bricks and pavers annually. The Group constitutes five UK plants operating within the constructor sector as Michemersh Brick UK Ltd, and also includes a brick manufacturing plant located in Belgium, operating as Floren & Cie.

Michelmersh employs circa 370 staff and has an annual turnover of approximately £60 million for the financial year running January to December.

Our supply chains

Our supply chain includes professional services providers, raw material suppliers, engineering & electrical suppliers, energy suppliers and haulage suppliers. We recognise that risks of labour abuse could occur in second and third tier suppliers in certain industries and we will begin to undertake risk analysis to understand how this impacts our suppliers.

Our policy on slavery and human trafficking

Michelmersh is committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business.

In light of the obligation to report on measures to ensure that all parts of our business and supply chain are slavery free, we have put in place a designated Anti-Slavery Policy.

Our Anti-Slavery Policy (see weblink below) demonstrates our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our supply chains.

Due diligence processes for slavery and human trafficking

We have in place systems and policies to protect whistleblowers. We will assess all our suppliers and where we believe we have a concern with a supplier we will seek assurances about their own awareness of, and compliance with, the Modern Slavery Act 2015 by requesting them to complete a questionnaire.

Non-compliance

If we find a supplier is non-compliant with our policies or code of conduct, or provides inadequate information, we will work with them to improve their performance. In cases of material or persistent non-compliance, we may consider terminating the business relationship as soon as possible.

Training

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, we intend to provide training to our staff. We will also require our business partners to provide training to their staff, suppliers and providers.

Our progress

In 2020, we promoted our ethical company culture acting as a responsible corporate citizen. The Group continues to develop Personal Development Programmes for staff whilst increasing the awareness and knowledge of sustainability through further training.

Our policy in combating slavery and human trafficking

We will track and report in future statements on:

- The effectiveness of the 'Brick Quality Charter' (BQC) Scheme aimed at allowing manufacturers to align business standards and instil confidence in material provenance and quality.
- Our recruitment practices in employing new staff.
